Nobody joined a studio to update trackers.

But creative teams lose a slice of every day to the boring half of work.

THE BORING HALF

-  Updating task status, again
-  Chasing follow-ups on WhatsApp
-  Writing and sitting through the standup
-  Working out who's doing what, by when
-  Digging for what's ready to bill
-  Building a report for the founder

30 min

PER PERSON, EVERY DAY

For a ten-person team that's about 110 hours a month — most of a full-time salary spent on admin.

So the tool gets abandoned.

Project software feels like homework. By month two, people stop opening it.

Illustration: 10 people · 22 working days · 30 minutes of coordination per person per day.

Bod App does the boring half. Your team does the work.

THE APP TAKES CARE OF

- 🎯 Sorting today's priorities
- 🔔 Follow-ups and reminders
- 🕒 The daily standup
- 💰 The what-to-bill checklist
- 📊 Reports for the founder

YOUR TEAM GETS BACK TO

- 📁 The brief and the design
- 🎤 The script, the shoot, the edit
- ⭐ The campaign idea
- 🗣️ The client conversation
- 😊 Actually enjoying the week

One clear answer every time you open it: what to do next, and by when.

Work that feels a bit like Duolingo.

Small wins celebrated. Gentle nudges, never scolding. A reason to open the app every day.

EVERY MONDAY, ON THE HOME SCREEN

Bod Annan, the studio's in-app buddy, turns last week into a small win the whole team can see.

Meet Bod Annan

Shows up for the good moments — a recap, a milestone, an empty inbox. Never to scold.

Weekly momentum

What you shipped, clients served and turnaround, celebrated every week.

Vibe status

Long-press a task to set its mood: On fire, Waiting on client, Ready for review.

Words that encourage

"Nice — you shipped 4 things this week." Not "4 pending action items!!!"

The app runs the admin. You run the day.

9:00 AM

Open the app. Today is already sorted.

“4 tasks need your attention today” — overdue first.

11:30 AM

Speak a task in Manglish. It's assigned.

Assignee, deadline and priority filled in for you.

2:00 PM

Waiting on a client? The nudge is drafted.

After 48 hours, the follow-up writes itself.

4:30 PM

Long-press to set the vibe.

Leads feel the load without a single check-in.

6:00 PM

Your standup is written. One tap to post.

What shipped and what's next, for the whole team.

MONDAY

Bod Annan celebrates last week.

“You shipped 4 deliverables last week.”

05 · WHAT TO DO, BY WHEN

No planning. Just the next thing.

Everyone opens the app to a short, sorted list and a clear deadline. The app decides the order, so the team can just start.

Smart Focus Queue

Overdue and due-today first, blocked work tucked aside. Sorted every morning, per person.

“What's next?” AI

Not sure what to pick up? Ask, and get the next task with a reason.

A daily AI briefing

A short personal summary of the day, right on the home screen.

Home-screen widgets

Top tasks and the AI briefing without even opening the app.

Speak it. It becomes a task.

A voice note or a messy line of notes turns into a clean, assigned task — the who, what and when already filled in. In the language your team actually speaks.

Malayalam

English

Manglish

Voice → task

PDF → tasks

- ✓ Assignee, deadline and priority parsed for you
- ✓ Lands in the PM approval queue, with duplicate detection
- ✓ Works from a voice note, rough notes or a PDF brief

YOU · VOICE NOTE · MANGLISH

“Naseem-inod OXY landing page copy Friday-il venam, high priority.”

BOD APP · DRAFT TASK

Here's the task, ready for approval:

|          |                       |
|----------|-----------------------|
| Task     | OXY landing page copy |
| Assignee | Naseem                |
| Deadline | Friday                |
| Priority | High                  |

EDIT

The clerical work, handled.

Six jobs your team does by hand today, which Bod App now does on its own.

The standup

BEFORE Writing the daily update.

NOW A 6 PM digest is written for you. One tap to post.

Follow-ups

BEFORE Chasing clients on WhatsApp.

NOW 48 hours waiting? A nudge is drafted and ready.

Status checks

BEFORE Asking everyone where things are.

NOW Status and vibe live on every task card.

Planning the day

BEFORE Scrolling a board to decide.

NOW The Focus Queue sorts it every morning.

Billing

BEFORE Digging through chats for billables.

NOW Done work lands in the Ready to Bill queue.

Reports

BEFORE Building a sheet for the founder.

NOW Analytics and a plain-English AI summary.

Numbers that cheer you on.

Shipped work, clients served and turnaround in plain words, with an AI summary that reads like a team lead talking, not a dashboard shouting.

AI SUMMARY · EXAMPLE

“Output is up 18% vs last week. Design is your busiest category; two OXY tasks are blocked on client feedback.”

HOW BOD APP TALKS

✓ 4 tasks need your attention today.

✗ You have 4 pending action items!!!

✓ Ready to bill – 6 deliverables.

✗ Invoice-eligible entities: 6.

✓ Nice – you shipped 4 things this week.

✗ Weekly throughput report generated.

What each person stops doing.

Same work, seen through each person's lens — minus the admin.

Founder

Stops asking “where are we?”

Gets the whole studio at a glance, a weekly AI read and a 6 PM standup.

Project manager

Stops chasing people and clients

Gets one approvals inbox, drafted nudges and tasks spoken in by voice.

Creative team

Stops filling in trackers

Gets a sorted Focus Queue, a vibe on every task and weekly wins.

Finance & HR

Stops hunting for what to bill

Gets a Ready to Bill queue, a what-to-bill checklist, and leave in one place.

Monday morning, before and after.

Same team, same clients. A much lighter start to the week.

BEFORE BOD APP

- ✗ Open WhatsApp to 40 unread messages
- ✗ Ask three people where the OXY copy is
- ✗ Nobody is sure what's due today
- ✗ A status meeting eats the first hour
- ✗ Last week's wins go unnoticed

WITH BOD APP

- ✓ Open Bod App to 4 sorted tasks
- ✓ Status and vibe live on every card
- ✓ Today's deadlines at the top of the queue
- ✓ Friday's 6 PM digest already went out
- ✓ Bod Annan: "You shipped 4 deliverables"

Simple per-seat plans.

14 days free. Full features. No card.

From first call to a decision in 14 days.

A real workflow, not a generic demo.

14 days, full features, no card. If it hasn't earned its place, walk away — there's no contract to unwind.

The questions you're already thinking.

Short answers. No jargon.

Isn't “playful” a distraction?

The fun is small and in the right places: a weekly win, a vibe, a kind nudge. Bod Annan shows up at about one in five moments.

Will my team actually use it?

Opening it saves time instead of costing it. Today's list is already sorted, and the updates write themselves.

We already use WhatsApp.

Keep it for conversation. Bod App gives the work a home, and still sends nudges on WhatsApp.

Who has time to migrate?

There's nothing to migrate. Start with this week's tasks, or just speak them in.

Does it replace our invoicing?

No. It tells Finance what to bill. Amounts and invoices stay in Zoho.

Is the AI really multilingual?

Yes: Malayalam, English or Manglish, by voice or text. iOS, Android and web.
